Data Field Officer (Monitoring, Evaluation & MIS),

The Aangan Trust - Knowledge & Impact Team

01/2024 – 03/2026 | Dumka, Jharkhand

Working as part of the Knowledge & Impact (K&I) team, supporting program monitoring, data analysis, and evidence-based decision-making to strengthen safe schooling and child protection systems.

Key Responsibilities

- Coordinated Monitoring & Evaluation activities across multiple districts, ensuring regular tracking of attendance, child protection risks, and intervention outcomes.
- Managed and reviewed field data, MIS dashboards, and attendance tracking systems, ensuring data accuracy, consistency, and timely reporting.
- Conducted data quality checks, cross-verification, and field validations to strengthen reliability of program data.
- Supported indicator tracking, data quality assurance, and performance monitoring for program implementation.
- Supported field teams on data tools, reporting formats, and documentation processes.
- Prepared reports, case documentation, and review presentations for stakeholders.
- Used hyper-local data to identify vulnerable households and support targeted interventions related to dropout, child labour, migration, and early marriage.
- Worked closely with schools, teachers, Panchayat members, and local officials to improve attendance, follow-up, and child protection responses.
- Coordinated with district administration, education officials, PRI members, frontline workers, and partner stakeholders for program implementation and review.

Key Achievements

- Monitored 10,000+ child-level case and intervention records across 200+ villages in Dumka, Pakur, and Jamtara, enabling timely identification and follow-up of children at risk of dropout, migration, child labour, and child marriage through structured tracking systems.
- Led large-scale digital data coverage across Jharkhand (Dumka, Jamtara & Pakur), managing 20,000+ individual and family-level records across 200+ villages, ensuring strong data accuracy, consistency, and compliance for program and donor reporting.
- Tracked and supported 1,200+ irregular adolescent girls using the Attendance Tracking System (ATS) across 50 villages, working closely with community women volunteers to improve attendance and bring children back into regular schooling.
- Enabled education re-engagement and progression for adolescent girls by supporting the re-enrolment of 500+ school dropouts and facilitating grade transitions for 700+ girls (Class 8–9 and Class 10–11), based on data-driven analysis of attendance patterns, risk indicators, and community-level barriers.
